HAVE I GOT NEWS FOR YOU

Exclusive -
You'll Never
See It On TV...

After 5 years of straining at the leash, Have I Got News For You at last breaks free from the ever-so-polite BBC for a unique, all-out attack on the big news stories of 1995, not to mention an X-rated wallow in the year's tabloid sleaze.

Special guests Eddie Izzard and Richard Wilson join regulars Angus Deayton, Ian Hislop and Paul Merton, to keep the live audience in stitches and the lawyer in tears, in a full length, full throttle battle for supremacy that could never be shown on television. Featuring...

- A blow by blow account of Hugh Grant's performance with L.A. hooker Divine Brown.
- What Will Carling taught Princess Diana - allegedly.
- Major vs Redwood, in the WBC featherweight contest for the Tory leadership.
- And much, much more.
- PLUS a behind the scenes look at the build up to the show, illustrating the dedication, the professionalism and the sheer arsing about that makes Have I Got News For You television's most popular ever comedy news quiz (just ahead of Martyn Lewis' "Today's the Day").
- AND the shockingly tragic "Tub of Lard's Video Diary".
